

Joel Anthis, MD

Otolaryngology Head and Neck Surgeon (otherwise known as ENT specialist)

Originally from Houston, TX.

Currently living and working in private practice for Texas ENT Specialists in Katy, Texas (suburb of west Houston)

Graduate of:

University of Virginia (undergraduate)

Baylor College of Medicine: medical school (1993)

Eastern Virginia Medical School: residency in Otolaryngology (1999)

Married to Dr Cindy Anthis, a family physician. Father of four children ages 15 to 3 years old.

Dr Anthis left private practice in Houston, TX in 2003 and moved with his wife and children as full-time medical missionaries with the agency SIM to work at Evangel Hospital in Jos, Nigeria, West Africa. Dr Anthis established an ENT program within the hospital and both Drs Joel and Cindy Anthis helped train Nigeria doctors in the Evangel Hospital Family Medicine residency program. The Anthises returned to Houston, Texas in 2006 to live, but have continued to return to Nigeria several times a year and support the medical work in Jos, Nigeria.